

were forcibly deported. This is one of the worst genocides of civilians in modern history. The Russian army is purposefully and ruthlessly destroying our city and its inhabitants.”

After numerous attempts, the UN has successfully evacuated about 100 civilians from the Azovstal steel plant complex, the last bastion of the city’s defenders.

Putin, Milner has announced several donations to help with the refugee crisis since the invasion of Ukraine.

Meanwhile, four oligarchs and two Russian oil directors have died “by suicide” in mysterious circumstances over the past three months. It is suspected that at least some of the deaths may be related to Putin and his circle.

Lapid admitted that the Tel Aviv offices “are superfluous” and should be closed. “I don’t need them,” he said. “I don’t need to put on a show of luxury for people. A table and three chairs around it are enough.”

He did not explain why the office has not been closed, nor why some diplomats are hosted at top hotels.

regarded as a slippery slope,” she said. “This included kashrus, conversion, the reform Ko-sel section, Har Habayis, Torah students, and childcare centers for yungeleit.”

“I gave it a chance, but it was a mistake,” she said. “I really thought that after three rounds of elections, it was worth giving unity a chance. This is [now] a chance to ask forgiveness from disappointed Yamina voters and from right-wing voters who were wronged.”

“Beautiful words like unity and healing have no place here,” she continued. “This is a government with no National Union, Religious Zionism, or Likud. Half the nation is absent here. If there was real unity, it would be possible to give it a chance.”

“The government and coalition are living on borrowed time, and the train has left the station,” Silman concluded. “There is not only no majority in the Knesset, but no majority representation of the people.”

CLOSE TO 30,000 REFUGEES REACH ISRAEL

By Sunday, 26,797 Ukrainian refugees entered Israel, and 3,919 left, while a total of 350 were prevented from entering the country.

Yuri Borisovich Milner, a Russian-Israeli oligarch, has pledged $100 million to Tech for Refugees, an initiative focused on using technology to help refugees from Ukraine find provisions and shelter. Distancing himself from

LAPID’S UNUSED OFFICE WASTES MILLIONS

Kann Chadashot revealed that instead of receiving dignitaries at a giant Foreign Ministry complex in a Ramat Gan building, Foreign Minister Yair Lapid prefers to meet them at luxury hotels at state expense or at his party headquarters.

The unused office space is costing the Israeli public $300,000 in rent a year.

IDIT SILMAN EXPLAINS WHY SHE DESERTED

In her first interview since she deserted the coalition last month, MK Idit Silman of Yamina said that one reason she left was because of Religious Affairs Minister Matan Kahana’s religious reforms.

“There are things that haven’t been touched for 70 years in extreme left-wing governments, and now they are. This is what I
