

of all weapons meant to be transferred to Israel, the White House was not currently planning to restrict military aid to Israel.

The White House was only concerned with obtaining a “complete and accurate image” of weapons earmarked for Israel, they said.

The development came against a backdrop of mounting pressure on the Biden administration from Democratic Congressmen and public polls regarding arms sales to Israel.

Over 35 Congress Democrats have warned Biden that an Israeli invasion of Rafah would violate a rule he established preventing U.S. weapons from being used in violation of international law.

The United States has quietly delivered more than 100 military sales to Israel since October 7.

HOSTAGES’ PARENTS VISIT RAV LANDAU

Parents of surveillance soldiers kidnapped on October 7 were received at the residence of the Slabodka rosh yeshiva, Rav Dov Landau.

He recited chapters of Tehillim with them and gave them a brocha, saying, “May they return soon in health and completeness.”

The parents also said Tehillim with Chacham Nissim ben Shimon of Bnei Brak.

Shlomi Berger spoke about his 19-year-old daughter, saying, “Since Agam was kidnapped, there has been a sefer Torah in our building. There are prayers and shemiras Shabbos for her merit and her swift release.”

E.U. PREFERS HAMAS OVER HUNGARY

Italian journalist Giulio Meotti noted that the European Commission suspended cooperation with 21 Hungarian universities for the start of the 2024 school year over concerns about the universities’ lack of autonomy from the government. Yet, the Islamic University of Gaza received $1.86 million in European funds despite its known links to Hamas.

In addition, a member of the Hamas political bureau served on the University of Gaza’s supervisory board.

Europe’s Erasmus universities program also gave half a million euros to Iran and Iraq.

At the same time, Europe’s Horizon Project educational program deprived Hungary of university funds this year yet financed the “Global Koran” project with $2 million.

Meanwhile, Brigadier General Barak Chiram, a division commander in Gaza, was reprimanded for issuing an order in January to level the Israa University in Gaza City without prior authorization through the chain of command.

Intelligence reports had revealed the presence of terrorists and tunnel entrances on the university’s grounds.

SEVEN SOLDIERS INJURED NEAR CHOMESH

Amid ongoing fighting in the West Bank, seven soldiers were injured by an improvised explosive device near Chomesh in the Shomron region of the northern West Bank.

“During routine army activity adjacent to the town of Silat ad-Dhahr earlier today, an explosive device detonated in the area, injuring three IDF soldiers moderately and four soldiers lightly,” the army announced.

A defense official said that 100 wanted terrorists had been arrested in one week.

“We work around the clock together with all the security agencies to reach those terrorists, arrest or eliminate them while they are still inside [their own] cities and villages,” he said.
