

serving achievements. There will be an attack — unequivocally,” Kisch explained.

MK Tali Gottlieb of Likud slammed the Prime Minister's directive, saying, “Prime Minister Netanyahu has turned to the ministers demanding that they not give interviews on the subject of Iran and the U.S. Woe that the ministers of Israel should express an opinion of their own. Mr. Prime Minister, this is not a private country, not even yours.”

“It is incumbent upon the ministers to give interviews and not allow you to succumb to Biden's pressure not to attack Iran,” she said.

“The citizens of Israel demand an attack on Iran,” Gottlieb added. “This is a rare opportunity you spoke about for years. What happened to you? What will happen to us?”

JEWISH STUDENTS SLAMMED AT EUROPEAN EVENT

The European Union of Jewish Students

(EUJS) slammed the virulent disturbance that erupted during the closing plenary of the Level Up! youth leadership event of the European Parliament organized by the European Youth Forum (YFJ).

This year's Level Up! events in Brussels, Belgium, focused on the upcoming European elections and the importance of youth political engagement.

At the closing event, 13 Jewish students from nine European countries came under attack when participants disrupted the ceremony, shouting “Free Palestine,” “Ceasefire Now” and accusing Israel of committing genocide. Most of the plenary attendants, including the moderators and various board and staff members of the YFJ, started clapping.

Moreover, after requesting the floor, a participant taught the audience how to say “Free Palestine” in sign language.

When EUJS President Emma Hallali condemned the importation of the Middle East conflict in a youth event about the European elections, the crowd booed and insulted her, ac-curring her of “hate speech” and labeling her as a “fascist Zionist.”

“I saw violence and hatred in the participants' eyes,” she said. “I have never experienced this aggressiveness before, but this is what European Jews are experiencing on a daily basis across Europe.”

“How is it that European Jewish students felt uncomfortable and unsafe while sitting in the plenary of the Hemicycle — the place that should be the house of European democracy?” EUJS asked.

TWO PERISH IN HOSTEL FIRE

Two residents of the Alei Siach sheltered hostel died tragically in a dormitory fire. Five were injured, including a resident who was engaged to be married last week and participated in the rescue efforts.

The fatalities were Dovid Rabinowitz from Beitar Illit, aged 19, and Doniel Ha-rari from Yerushalayim, aged 20.

“Dovid and Doniel were beloved and respected by the staff and the students alike, and their loss leaves a great void in all of our hearts,” Alei Siach announced.

Firefighting personnel arrived at the scene shortly after the fire broke out. They forced open the locked entrance door and rescued nine people trapped inside, two of whom were seriously injured. The fire was apparently caused by carelessness in one of the dorm rooms.

Rasem Askar, a Muslim neighbor, took his son with him and attempted to free trapped residents before the firefighters arrived. Both were injured and treated in hospital.

Founded in 1990, Alei Siach provides residential care, vocational training, employment opportunities, marital assistance, and social activities for children and adults with intellectual and physical disabilities and promotes integration within the broader community.
